India's Premium Job Portal 'ClickJobs.com' launched An ISO 9001:2000 certified BharatMatrimony Group Enterprise

Chennai, August 24, 2005: BharatMatrimony Group - Pioneers of online matrimony industry in India & owners of Bharatmatrimony.com - The No.1 Indian Matrimony service provider, announced the launch of India's Premium Job Portal 'ClickJobs.com' today. ClickJobs.com is the first ever ISO 9001:2000 certified job portal in India.

Announcing the launch of ClickJobs.com, Murugavel Janakiraman, CEO, BharatMatrimony Group said, " BharatMatrimony.com has been a pioneer in the online space and we have created the online matrimony market in India. We have consistently redefined the online matchmaking business and have credited ourselves with many path-breaking initiatives. Our vision of becoming the 'No.1 Online Business Group in India' has inspired us to expand organically through diversification into other lucrative online businesses and the launch of ClickJobs.com is the first step in that direction. ClickJobs.com aims to redefine this online space and become the most preferred brand for both employers & jobseekers."

Clickjobs.com will feature thousands of job opportunities and a healthy list of corporates within the first three months and then scale-up in a phased manner. The employer profiles will cut across different industries ranging from IT, ITES, Services, Manufacturing, etc. Some of the leading Corporate Houses already partnering with us include Yahoo!, Sasken Global, Sundaram Infotech, TVS Electronics, Team Lease, Logica CMG and many more. Headquartered in Chennai, Clickjobs.com will have zonal offices in Delhi, Mumbai and Bangalore. Further expansion will be done in a phased out manner.

Michael M Bala, Business Head, ClickJobs.com added, “ClickJobs.com aspires to bridge the ever-increasing demand-supply gap between the employers and the job seekers. We will differentiate ourselves by offering a set of unique services based on 25,000 man-hours of extensive research & development on the current requirement of the Indian job market. We will focus on getting the ‘right fit’ happening between an employer’s requirement and a job seekers aspiration. We have created a comprehensive ‘future proof’ portal and going forward we will strive to be the best human resources solution provider in the online space.”
